

Coming to Battleground:
Loss and the Quest for Meaning;
the Spiritual Arc of Tragic Loss.

This is an unprecedented opportunity

Facilitated by Renowned Researcher Robert A. Neimeyer, PhD and Carolyn Ng, PsyD

Join us on Sunday, March 10, 2024 from 9:00AM - 4:30PM at the Meadowglade Adventist Church for an insightful event.

- Engage with our presenter Dr. Bob Neimeyer, a psychologist and researcher on a par with Dr. Elizabeth-Kubler Ross.
- Of particular concern in this workshop will be the phenomenon of complicated spiritual grief, in which believers struggle with a sense of insecurity, anger and distance in relation to both God and the faith community, as well as disruptions in their spiritual practice.
- Don't miss out on this invaluable event! Mark your calendars and prepare to embark on the spiritual arc of tragic loss. We look forward to welcoming you.

Workshop Schedule:

9:00-10:30 -- Loss and the Quest for Meaning: Adaptive and complicated grief
1030-1045 -- Break
1045-1200 -- Complicated Spiritual Grief: Addressing the crisis of belief
1200-1:00 -- Lunch
1:00-2:30 -- Reaffirming the Continuing Bond: Tracing legacies of love
2:30-2:45 -- Break
2:45-4:00 -- Recomposing the Self in Loss: Grief and growth in the wake of loss

Embrace the opportunity to deepen your understanding of grief, find comfort in shared stories, and embark on a journey towards renewed purpose.

- Tea, coffee, and a warm, vegetarian lunch will be provided for all attendees.
- All attendees are required to register on-line, to assist in catering.
- A charge of $25 plus handling fee will be required for all attendees
- A fee of $35 will be charged at the door for those who have not registered.
